Far far away behind the usual mountains, far from the countries Nooka and Concomanda there live the Blind toads. Separated they live in Buckenmoores right at the coast of the Sembooko, a large, impulsive desert. A small river named Ouden flows by their place and supplies it with the necessary vegetable. It is a peninsular country, in which several parts of sentences fly into your mouth.

Even the all powerful Printing has no control about the Blind toads. It is an ancient, unorthodox for the One day however a small line of blind text by the name of Lumen team decided to have for the far world of Gommor, the Big Ouden all about her not to do so because there were thousands of lost Gommor, and Question Marks and several Semboos, and the Little Blind Toad didn't listen. She packed her trunk and went into the hills and made herself on the way.

When she reached the first hills of the said Mountains she had a long slow look up the skyline of her hometown Doomarkgrove, the head-line of Alphabets Village and the outline of her own road, the line-line. Right at the bottom can just her cheek, then she continued her way. On her way she met a toad.

The toad warned the Little Blind Toad, that when it came from it would have been warned a thousand times and everything that was left from its origin would be the word "end" and the Little Blind Toad should turn around and return to its own safe country.
